LAW SCHOOL NEWS

Students: The National Moot Court Team has returned from a successful trip to the National Moot Court Regional Competition held in Tulsa, November 19-21, 1987. The team, composed of Andrea Foster, Maria Robles, and Ray Weston (Review member), placed first in the overall competition, thereby advancing to the National Competition held annually in New York City. Ray Weston's brief was honored as the best brief in the competition.

In order to reach the finals of the Regional Competition, the Moot Court Team had to defeat Houston, Saint Mary's, and Texas Tech. The team defeated South Texas in the final round to win the competition. The team will travel to New York City in January to compete against the top twenty-eight teams from across the nation. The National Moot Court Team is coached by Professors Robert Spector and Teree Foster.
